The infographic features a dark green background with six distinct panels. Each panel contains an illustration and a text box. The top-left panel has the main title in orange and yellow. The top-right panel shows a person holding a child's hand, with a circular inset showing a person coughing and virus particles. The middle-left panel shows hands being washed with soap. The middle-right panel shows a person covering their mouth with their elbow. The bottom-left panel shows a person's hand about to touch their face, with a red 'no' symbol over it. The bottom-right panel shows a house with a bed icon inside a circle. The CDC logo and website URL are at the bottom.
